“Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.” (PHILIPPIANS 4:6)

St. Paul reminds us that God is an abundant God – He is the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. Remember, that we are created in God’s image and likeness. We, too, are made to be generous with all of our gifts as well. Placing our trust in God frees us from being a slave to possessions. It allows us to gratefully and generously share ourselves and our goods with others.

“No se preocupen por nada, más bien pídanle al Señor lo que necesiten y agradézanle siempre.” (FILIPENSES 4:6)

San Pablo nos recuerda que Dios es un Dios abundante - Él es el máximo dador de dones. El promete darnos todo lo que necesitamos. Recuerde, fuimos creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios. Nosotros también, fuimos hechos para ser generosos con todos nuestros dones. Poner nuestra confianza en Dios nos libera de la esclavitud de los bienes materiales. Eso nos permite compartírnos a nosotros mismos y a nuestros bienes con los demás agradecida y generosamente.

STAND

YOUTH MINISTRY

Our STAND teens gathered together for a group social night in celebration of the Christmas Season! Gingerbread houses were enjoyed by all.

WHAT ARE THE "O" Antiphons?

The "O" Antiphons begin with different Old Testament references to the hope for the Messiah. Then, the second line is a plea for the Messiah to come. Of course, the Lord has already come at the first Christmas.

Yet, during every Advent we have the opportunity to grow in our longing for the Lord who has come, who is coming, and who will come again. These antiphons are a way to sanctify Advent and increase our longing for the Lord as we approach Christmas Eve.

DECEMBER 17

O Sapientia

O Wisdom, coming forth from the mouth of the Most High, reaching from one end to the other, mightily and sweetly ordering all things:

Come and teach us the way of prudence.

DECEMBER 18

O Adonai

O Adonai, and leader of the House of Israel, who appeared to Moses in the fire of the burning bush and gave him the law on Sinai:

Come and redeem us with an outstretched arm.

DECEMBER 19

O Radix Jesse

O Root of Jesse, standing as a sign among the peoples; before you kings will shut their mouths, to you the nations will make their prayer:

Come and deliver us, and delay no longer.

DECEMBER 20

O Clavis David

O Key of David and sceptre of the House of Israel; you open and no one can shut; you shut and no one can open:

Come and lead the prisoners from the prison house, those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death.

DECEMBER 21

O Oriens

O Morning Star, splendour of light eternal and sun of righteousness: Come and enlighten those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death.

DECEMBER 22

O Rex Gentium

O King of the nations, and their desire, the cornerstone making both one:

Come and save the human race, which you fashioned from clay.

DECEMBER 23

O Emmanuel

O Emmanuel, our king and our lawgiver, the hope of the nations and their Saviour:

Come and save us, O Lord our God.

Before the Advent Penance Service this Tuesday at 7pm, take some time to reflect with this Examination of Conscience based on the Ten Commandments

I. I AM THE LORD YOUR GOD: YOU SHALL NOT HAVE STRANGE GODS BEFORE ME.

Have I treated people, events, or things as more important than God?

II. YOU SHALL NOT TAKE THE NAME OF THE LORD YOUR GOD IN VAIN.

Have my words, actively or passively, put down God, the Church, or people?

III. REMEMBER TO KEEP HOLY THE LORD'S DAY.

Do I go to Mass every Sunday (or Saturday Vigil) and on Holy Days of Obligation?

Do I avoid, when possible, work that impedes worship to God, joy for the Lord's Day, and proper relaxation of mind and body?

Do I look for ways to spend time with family or in service on Sunday?

IV. HONOR YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER.

Do I show my parents due respect?

Do I seek to maintain good communication with my parents where possible?

Do I criticize them for lacking skills I think they should have?

V. YOU SHALL NOT KILL.

Have I harmed another through physical, verbal, or emotional means, including gossip or manipulation of any kind?

VI. YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY.

Have I respected the physical and sexual dignity of others and of myself?

VII. YOU SHALL NOT STEAL.

Have I taken or wasted time or items that belonged to another?

VIII. YOU SHALL NOT BEAR FALSE WITNESS AGAINST YOUR NEIGHBOR.

Have I gossiped, told lies, or embellished stories at the expense of another?

IX. YOU SHALL NOT COVET YOUR NEIGHBOR'S SPOUSE.

If Single: Have I seen someone else just as an object?

If Married: Have I honored my spouse with my full affection and exclusive love?

X. YOU SHALL NOT COVET YOUR NEIGHBOR'S GOODS.

Am I content with my own means and needs, or do I compare myself to others unnecessarily?

John Was Serious!

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Zephaniah 3:14-18a - Promise of a savior
- ▶ Philippians 4:4-7 - Joy and peace
- ▶ Luke 3:10-18 - John calls the people to justice

This week we hear John the Baptist give concrete examples of what it means to “prepare the way of the Lord.” He tells the crowds, “Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none, and whoever has food must do likewise.” Three hundred years later, St. Basil took John the Baptist (and Jesus) so seriously that he wrote, “When someone steals another’s clothes, we call them a thief. Should we not give the same name to one who could clothe the naked and does not? The bread in your cupboard belongs to the hungry; the coat unused in your closet belongs to the one who needs it; the shoes rotting in your closet belong to the one who has no shoes; the money which you hoard up belongs to the poor.” Do we take these words so seriously? If not, why not?

John the Baptist directed his next two examples of preparing the way for Jesus to particular groups of “middle-men” in his society: the tax collectors and Roman soldiers. Tax collectors notoriously padded their wallets by collecting more than the Jewish peasants legally owed to their Roman rulers. Theirs was like white collar crime today—maybe not violent or vicious, but unjust and hurtful, especially to people poorer than them. John the Baptist also challenged the Roman soldiers to stop using their strength and position to extort money out of fear. The Jews had more than enough trials in life without being threatened and falsely accused by the police force of their time. Some parallels might be the racism experienced by people of color in America today (particularly at the hands of the police and criminal justice system), and the power that

“With thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.”

Sheepish Question:
Here in Advent, how can my attitude in prayer quell my anxieties and open me to God’s peace?

employers have over undocumented workers and those who don’t speak fluent English.

For John, preparing the way for Jesus was about much more than going through a baptismal ritual. It required concrete changes in how people lived their day-to-day lives. Perhaps we need to be reminded of that when we approach any of the sacraments ourselves. Are we committing to live out what we say we believe?

Questions of the Week

- 1 What is your reaction to St. Basil’s quote? Does it contain a challenge to you? What is it?
- 2 What are some forms of “socially acceptable” crime today that could be considered similar to the tax collectors and Roman soldiers of John’s day? Do you see evidence of them in your work or profession?
